The Challenge

750,000 Brits now call the USA home.

Since 2017, U.S residents are the most frequent visitors to the U.K.

At the start of the pandemic there were 845 flights per week to the U.K., today there are less than 30!

The restrictions are increasingly anachronistic

Other nations are not subject to travel restrictions (e.g. Pakistan, Turkey, Ethiopia, Columbia and India, until last Tuesday).
